

2017 ORSP Small Grant Program Awardees

The ORSP Small Grants Program fosters the professional development of investigators and creative artists at San Francisco State University by supporting original projects that contribute significantly to the professional achievement and growth of applicants.

College of Business

Su-Jane Hsieh, Professor Accounting, "A New Perspective on the Earnings Management of Initial Public Offerings Firms"

Graduate College of Education

Kathleen Mortier, Assistant Professor Special Education & Communicative Disorders, "Parent-school Partnerships for Latino Families with Children with Disabilities"

College of Ethnic Studies

Christen Sasaki, Assistant Professor Asian-American Studies, "Pacific Confluence: Negotiation the Nation in 19th Century Hawai'i"

Grace Yoo, Professor Asian-American Studies, "International Students from Korea: Adjustment, Concerns and Support"

College of Health and Social Sciences

Tiffany O'Shaughnessy, Assistant Professor Counseling, "Client Experiences of LGBTQ Affirmative Therapy: Scale Development Project"

Susan Zieff, Professor Kinesiology, "Targeted populations: Ethical issues in physical activity promoting technologies"

College of Liberal and Creative Arts

Hsiao_Yun Chu, Associate Professor Design and Industry, "Reducing Dosing Errors in Pediatric OTC Medications: A Pilot Design Project"

Martha Kenney, Assistant Professor Women & Gender Studies, "The Epigenetics of Early Life Trauma: A Resource for Restorative Justice?"

Laura Moorhead, Assistant Professor Journalism, "The role of journalists in encouraging and framing the public's engagement with health research, a mixed-methods survey of the prevalence of peer-reviewed research and expertise in U.S. media coverage of cancer"

Scott Siegel, Assistant Professor International Relations, "LGBT Politics and the Far Right in Europe"

Johnny Symons, Assistant Professor Cinema, "Hoodie: A Documentary about Growing Up Black and Male"

College of Science and Engineering

Nicole Adelstein, Assistant Professor Chemistry, "Correcting Predictions of Li-conductivity in Electrolytes for All-Solid-State Batteries"

Jonathon Stillman, Professor Biology, "Genomics of Crabs, Bugs and Slugs"