SEEKING PRESENTERS

CSU Education, Health & Human Services, and Social Sciences Community
Hosted by Leslie Ponciano, Director of Research Opportunities
Department of Research, Chancellor’s Office

Thursday, February 27, 2020, 9:00 A.M. (SAVE THE DATE!)

This is a new effort intended to build an interdisciplinary research community for CSU faculty and administrators in Education, Health & Human Services, and Social Sciences across all 23 campuses. I am currently seeking presenters to briefly share their work during the webcast.

Purpose:
- Share best practices and innovative ideas
- Build awareness of research activity across the CSU
- Develop collaborative research teams (interdisciplinary and multi-campus)
- Pursue external funding
- Develop state-wide projects to address California’s social and educational issues

Seeking presentations of research that makes a difference in the lives of students:
- Innovative practices in PreK-Higher Education
  - Curriculum & Instruction
  - Special education
  - Bilingual education
  - Early education
  - Child & family studies
- Innovative practices in mental health
  - Psychology
  - Social work
  - Counseling
- Innovative practices in physical health
  - Kinesiology
  - Health science
  - Recreation
  - Nursing
- Innovative practices in social justice
  - Ethnic studies
  - Public policy
  - Criminal justice

Interested in Presenting at the Webcast? Please email lponciano@calstate.edu with your Name, Title, Department, Research Topic, and Prior/current external funding awards by January 22, 2020.

Interested in Attending the Webcast? A registration link will be sent to the research office of each campus on January 14, 2020 with more details about the webcast. The campus research office will disseminate the information to the various schools and colleges or you can contact them or Leslie Ponciano directly.
